What: U.S. Representative Mark Kirk will host the first 10th District Job Fair at Harper College's Wojcik Conference Center in Palatine on Monday, June 29, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. More than 20 employers from industries including health care, high-tech, energy, consulting and government will attend.

The event is open to all 10th District residents. There is no charge to attend. Congressional staff will be on hand to discuss federal work and health care benefits provided in the Stimulus bill, as well as provide additional resources for job seekers.

"The 10th District Job Fair will provide an important networking opportunity for job seekers and many of the major employers in the area," Congressman Kirk said. "From recent college graduates to seasoned professionals, we'll help identify programs and resources for those looking for new employment opportunities."

For more information, call Congressman Kirk's office at 847-940-0202, or visit www.house.gov/kirk.
